CURRICULUM VITAE

Institute of Philosophy, Theory of Science, History of Science and Technology
Technical University of Berlin, Strasse des 17. Juni 135
10623 Berlin/Germany

EDUCATION

Technical University of Berlin/Germany (Institute of Philosophy)

Habilitation¹ in Philosophy, March 2002-July 2009

Title of the Habilitation-Thesis: „Organismus als Prozess. Ontogenetisches Werden im Lichte der Naturphilosophien von Alfred N. Whitehead und Henri Bergson” [Organism as Process. Ontogenetic Becoming in the Light of the Natural-Philosophies of Alfred N. Whitehead and Henri Bergson]

Humboldt University Berlin/Germany (Institute of Human-Ontogenetics and Theory of Science)

Ph.D. in Philosophy of Science, April 1991-February 1994 (magna cum laude)

Title of the Dissertation: „Struktur und Selbstreflexion” [Structure and Self-reflection]

Humboldt University Berlin/Germany (Institute for Theoretical Physics)

Additional studies in physics of self-organization and complexity (nonlinear dynamical systems), March 1990-March 1991

Technical University of Chemnitz/Germany (Department of Mechanical Engineering)

Academy of Science in Dresden/Germany (Department of Material-Research)

Dipl. Ing.² in Engineering with additional studies in theoretical physics, September 1985-February 1990 (magna cum laude)

AREAS OF SPECIALISATION

Main areas of interests in systematic research:

biophilosophy/philosophy of biology, process philosophy, philosophy and theory of complexity, ancient and modern metaphysics (Aristotle, Leibniz)

The subject of the Habilitation-thesis is a process-theoretical consideration of the ontogenetic/embryo-genetic becoming of organisms. The process-philosophical approach is suggested as a possible way to solve some essential problems of the modern systems theoretical consideration of organisms. The main aim of the thesis is the foundation of a synthesis of the modern theory of complex systems with process-thought which leads beyond 20th century process-philosophy.

The subject of the Ph.D. was a philosophical examination of the theoretical foundations of the physical theory of self-organization and the biological theories of autopoiesis and radical constructivism.

Historical focus:

The philosophies of A.N. Whitehead, H. Bergson, Aristotle, H. Jonas, G. W. Leibniz, and Ch. S. Peirce.

Recent focus:

The concept of organism, process ontology for biology, Umwelt(environment), transhumanism and posthumanism, biological information.

AREAS OF COMPETENCE

Metaphysics (ancient, modern), systems-theory, history of biology, philosophy of time and memory, theodicy, the relevance of process-philosophy to psychology, and philosophy and landscape-architecture.

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS / TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Technical University of Berlin (Institute of Philosophy)

Privatdozent³, winter 2010 to the present:

September 2021: Beyond the Human? A Critical Introduction into Trans- and Posthumanism
(intensive course, advanced undergraduate and graduate)

³ In Germany, scholars who have passed the Habilitation, but do not hold a professorial chair yet, carry the title Ppiv.-Doz. (Privatdozent).

March 2021: Introduction to the Philosophy of Alfred N. Whitehead (intensive course, advanced undergraduate and graduate)
September 2020: Henri Bergson's Philosophy of Nature (intensive course, advanced undergraduate and graduate)
September 2018: Georges Canguilhem's Philosophy of Biology (intensive course, advanced undergraduate and graduate)
September 2018: Philosophical Problems of Self-Organization Theory (intensive course, graduate)
September 2017: Biophilosophy in the 20th Century (intensive course, graduate)
September 2017: Aristotle's Philosophy of Nature (intensive course, undergraduate)
March 2016: Henri Bergson's Philosophy of Life and Religion (intensive course, undergraduate)
February 2016: Philosophy of Organism and Evolution (intensive course, graduate)
February 2015: Introduction to the Philosophy of A.N. Whitehead (intensive course, graduate)
July 2014: Introduction to Biophilosophy (intensive course, graduate)
June 2013: Introduction to the Philosophy of Henri Bergson (intensive course, undergraduate upper division)
Oct. 2011-Febr. 2012: Aristotle's Philosophy of Nature (graduate)
Oct. 2010-Febr. 2011: Bio-philosophy (graduate)
Apr. 2010-July 2010: Process-philosophy (graduate)

UC Berkeley (department of anthropology)

Visiting Associate Professor

August 2012-December 2012: (with Professor Terrence W. Deacon, chair): Information and Semiosis (advanced undergraduate and graduate)

Munich School of Philosophy

June 2017: Philosophy of Organism and Evolution (intensive course, graduate)

Heinrich Heine University of Düsseldorf

August 2021: Trans- and Posthumanism. A Critical Consideration (intensive course, advanced undergraduate and graduate)

August 2020: Georges Canguilhem's Philosophy of Biology (intensive course, advanced undergraduate and graduate)

August 2018: Henri Bergson's Philosophy of Nature (intensive course, advanced undergraduate and graduate)

August 2017: Philosophy of Organism and Evolution (intensive course, graduate)

California State University East Bay, Hayward (department of philosophy and religious studies)

Visiting Lecturer

April 2013-June 2013: Introduction to Clear Thinking (undergraduate)

Claremont School of Theology in Claremont, CA

Co-Lecturer (Course taught with Professor John B. Cobb Jr.)

June 2008: Summer-session about the science-and-religion issue.

Technical University of Berlin (Institute of Philosophy)

Temporary Lecturer, October 1997-February 2002

Oct. 1997-Febr. 1998: Philosophical Problems of Recent Biological Theories of Evolution (undergraduate)

Apr. 1998-Jul. 1998: Introduction in the Philosophy of Henri Bergson (undergraduate)

Oct. 1998-Febr. 1999: Alfred N. Whitehead's The Concept of Nature (graduate)

Apr. 1999-Jul. 1999: Henri Bergson's Philosophy of Creative Evolution (graduate)

Oct. 1999-Febr.2000: Introduction in the Opus Magnum of Process-Philosophy: A.N. Whiteheads Process and Reality (graduate)

Apr. 2000-Jul. 2000: Philosophical Problems of the Concept of Biological Organism (undergraduate)

Oct. 2001-Febr. 2002: The Problem of Universals in different periods of Philosophy (graduate)

Humboldt University Berlin (Institute of Human-Ontogenetics and Theory of Science)

Temporary Lecturer, April 1995-February 1997

Apr.1995-Jul.1995: Philosophical Problems of the Theory of Self-Organization (graduate)

Oct. 1995-Febr. 1996: Introduction in Current Systems-Theories: Self-Organization, Radical Constructivism, and Chaos I (undergraduate)

Apr. 1996- Jul.1996: Introduction in Current Systems-Theories: Self-Organization, Radical Constructivism, and Chaos II (graduate).

Oct. 1996-Febr. 1997: Introduction in the Organic Cosmology of Alfred N. Whitehead (graduate)

Both the Technical University of Berlin and the Humboldt University of Berlin use the Winter- and Summer-Semester format for their academic year.

- Winter-Semester: Mid of October - Mid of February
- Summer-Semester: Mid of April - Mid of July

Intensive courses can be taught after the end of the summer semester and before the beginning of the winter semester.

VISITING PROFESSORSHIPS/LECTURESHIPS

UC Berkeley, Berkeley CA: August - December, 2012 (Visiting Associate Professor)

California State University East Bay, Hayward: April - June, 2013 (Visiting Lecturer)

VISITING SCHOLARSHIPS

UC Berkeley, Berkeley CA: February - July 2012, January 2013 - May 2014

Claremont School of Theology, Claremont, CA: April 2009

Claremont School of Theology, Claremont, CA: June 2008

ORGANIZATION OF CONFERENCES

Organization of the biology section of the International Conference “Nature in Process. Novel Approaches to Science and Metaphysics,” University of the Azores, Portugal; July 25-28, 2017. <http://whitehead2017.com/call-for-papers/>

Co-organization (with René Pikarski) of the track “Unprecedented Evolution: Human Continuities and Discontinuities with Animal Life” of the International Conference “Seizing an Alternative: Toward an Ecological Civilization,” Pomona College, Claremont CA; June 4-7, 2015: <http://www.ctr4process.org/whitehead2015/section-4-track-6/>

Co-organization (with Terrence Deacon) of the workshop “From Information to Semiosis. Recovering meaning and value in information theory” at the Department of Anthropology of the University of California, Berkeley, Berkeley, CA; June 19-21, 2015.

Co-organization (with Philip Clayton) of a workshop on the philosophy of biology at Claremont School of Theology in Claremont/CA; July 19-21, 2010.

Organization of the Bio-philosophy session at the “6th International Whitehead Conference: The Importance of Process – System and Adventure” hosted by the University of Salzburg, Austria; July 3-6, 2006.

Organization of the European meeting “On the Relevance of A.N Whitehead’s process philosophy to current biology and psychology” at the Department of Mathematics and the Department of Philosophy of the University of Bielefeld, Germany; March 1-3, 2005.

PRESENTED PAPERS

“Menschliche Umwelten. Zur Notwendigkeit und Möglichkeit der Rückbindung unserer symbolischen Systeme an die Biosphäre” [Human Environments. On the Necessity and Possibility of the Reconnection of our Symbolic Systems to the Biosphere] (invited presentation, June 30, 2021) Presented in the Digital Workshop “Anthropogenic Climate- and Environmental Crisis in Comparison”, June 30, 2021, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece and University of Vechta, Germany.

“Jakob von Uexkülls Begriff der ‘Umwelt’ und seine ökologisch-ethische Erweiterung” [Jakob von Uexküll’s Concept of ‘Umwelt’ and its Application on the Ethics of Ecology] (invited presentation, June 22, 2021) Presented in: Philosophical Faculty, Department for German Literature and Comparative Studies of Literature, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece.

“Kritik an der Körpermechanik des Transhumanismus” [Critique of the Body-Mechanics of Transhumanism] (invited presentation, June 07, 2021) Presented in the International Week May 31-June 11, 2021, University of Vechta, Germany.

“Körper und Selbstoptimierung im Transhumanismus” [Body and Self-Optimization in Transhumanism] (invited presentation, May 31, 2021) Presented in the International Week May 31-June 11, 2021, University of Vechta, Germany.

“Telos in Contemporary Biology and the Relevance of Aristotle” (invited presentation, March 13, 2021) Presented in the international conference “Teleology in Physics and Biology” The Angelicum Thomistic Institute, Rome, Italy, March 12-13, 2021.

„Sehende Uhrmacher? Eine skeptische Begegnung mit dem Transhumanismus“ [Seeing Watchmakers? A Skeptical Encounter with Transhumanism] (invited presentation, January 19, 2021) Presented in: Philosophical Faculty, Department for German Literature and Comparative Studies of Literature, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece.

“Die Grenze als kreativer Prozess” [The Border as a Creative Process] (invited presentation, November 27, 2020) Presented in: 6. INTERNATIONALES CHOREOGRAFENATELIER 2020/21, TANZTENDENZ MÜNCHEN e.V., Munich, Germany, November 26-28, 2020.

“Theory of the Organism beyond the Concept of Mechanism” (invited presentation, July 7th, 2019) Presented in the international conference “BIOETHICS IN CONTEXT VI: Human Beings – Nonhuman Beings – Nature” Trogir, Croatia, June 30-July 7, 2019.

Participant of the session “Reflections on the Conference & Final Discussion” of the International Conference “Process Biology: Final Conference of the ERC Project ‘A Process Ontology for Contemporary Biology’,” organized by John Dupré in the Royal Institute, London, UK; March 21-23, 2018.

Chair of the session “On living organisms: a foundational perspective” of the International Conference “Where are the Biological Sciences Going?,” Pontifical Urbaniana University, Rome, Italy; October 25-27, 2017.

“Intuiting Life. Feeling an Organism’s Processual Essence” (call for papers, July 25, 2017) Presented in: “Whitehead and Biology” section of the International Conference “Nature in Process. Novel Approaches to Science and Metaphysics,” University of the Azores, Portugal; July 25-28, 2017.

“Organisms and Machines – Essential Differences between them” (invited presentation, November 21st, 2016) Presented in: Center for Methodology, History, and Theory of Science, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece.

“Biological Neo-Teleologism from an Aristotelian Perspective” (call for papers, July 11, 2016) Presented in: Section 19 “Aristotle’s philosophy of biology” of the World Congress in Philosophy (WCP 2016): The Philosophy of Aristotle at the School of Philosophy, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece; July 10-15, 2016.

“Biological Functionalism from an Aristotelian Perspective” (call for papers, July 14, 2016) Presented in: Roundtable “Actuality of Aristotle’s Teleological (Functionalist) naturalism – as Type of Rationality (Type of (Bio)Cosmology)” at the World Congress in Philosophy (WCP 2016): The Philosophy of Aristotle at the School of Philosophy, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece; July 10-15, 2016.

“Organism, Constraints, Process. Towards a Process Ontology for Organismic Dynamics” (invited presentation, July 5, 2016)

Presented in: International workshop “Stability and Change in Biological Systems” at the IAS-Research Centre for Life, Mind, and Society at the University of the Basque Country, San Sebastian, Spain; July 5-6, 2016.

“Organismische Prozesse vs. maschinelle Abläufe” [Organismic Processes vs. Mechanical Procedures] (invited presentation/seminar, June 7, 2016)

Presented in the lecture series “Organismus als Maschine?” [Organism as Machine?] at the Hochschule für Philosophie [Munich School of Philosophy], Munich, Germany.

“Biological Neo-Teleologism from an Aristotelian and Whiteheadian Perspective” (call for papers, May 20, 2016)

Presented in: International Symposium “Philosophy of Nature – in Regard on Neo-Aristotelism & 11. International Symposium on Biocosmology” at the Department of Philosophy of University of Vienna, Austria; May 19-21, 2016.

“Umwelt: From Transcendentalism to Semiotics” (call for papers, June 19, 2015)

Presented in the workshop “From Information to Semiosis. Recovering meaning and value in information theory” at the Department of Anthropology of the University of California, Berkeley, Berkeley CA; June 19-21, 2015.

“Unprecedented Evolution: Human Continuities and Discontinuities with Animal Life” (call for papers, June 5, 2015)

Presented in: Track 6 of the International Conference “Seizing an Alternative: Toward an Ecological Civilization,” Pomona College, Claremont CA, June 4-7, 2015: <http://www.ctr4process.org/whitehead2015/>

“Uexküll and Whitehead. Umwelt, Subject, Process” (invited presentation, March 28, 2015)

Presented in the workshop “The Evolution of Meaning,” Fontareches, France, March 27-30, 2015.

“Organismus als Prozess” [Organism as Process] (invited presentation, December 18, 2014)

Presented in: Institute of Philosophy of the Justus Liebig Universität, Gießen, Germany.

“Organismus-Constraint-Prozess: zu einer Prozessontologie für die Biologie” [Organism-Constraint-Process: On a Process ontology for Biology] (call for papers, November 30, 2014)

Presented in APHIN (Working group of philosophizing engineers and scientists) I 2014 – Prolegomena, November 28-30, 2014, Bernkastel Kues, Germany.

“The Concepts of Organism and Environment/Umwelt from the Perspective of a Whiteheadian Biophilosophy” (invited presentation, August 29th, 2014)

Presented in the 3rd European Summer School in Process Thought, “The Metaphysical Foundations of a Non-Dualistic Environmental Ethics,” August 25-29, 2014, University of Düsseldorf, Germany.

“Organism complexity: dynamical depth in theoretical biology” (invited presentation, April 25th, 2013)

Presented in the Complexity Group of the Stanford University, California.

“Bergson’s Idea of ‘Living Eternity’ and Whitehead’s Concept of the ‘Consequent Nature of God’” (call for papers, March 29th, 2013)

Presented at the Eighty-Seventh Annual Meeting of the Pacific Division of The American Philosophical Association in San Francisco, California, March 27–30, 2013

“Between Teleology and Mechanism: The History of the Concept of Organism from a Philosophical Perspective” (invited presentation, March 7th, 2013)

Presented in the “Center for Philosophy and Natural Science” CPNS at California State University Sacramento, Sacramento, CA

“Henri Bergson — a Process Philosopher of Life” (invited presentation, February 22nd, 2013)

Presented at the “Philosophy, Cosmology, and Consciousness Forum” (PCC) of the Californian Institute for Integral Studies (CIIS), San Francisco, CA.

“Between Teleology and Mechanism: A Philosopher looks at the History of the Concept of Organism.” (invited presentation, November 29th 2012)
